The Thrill That Comes Once In A Lifetime

By Webster

Highway Discrimination

The present abundant condition of the road from Edmonton to Jasper emphasizes the notable discrimination against this section of the province in the Alberta government's road-building program.

The entire route is the roughest it has been since the highway was improved. There are bad spots east of Edson and for quite a number of miles east of Okotoks the road is in such condition as to threaten damage to any car that travels it.

All this compares most unfavorably with all the hard-surfaced government highways that have been built in the past few years on the Kicking Horse and Southern routes. It is a strange discrimination in view of the fact that the majority of Albertans live north of the half-way line between the Yellowhead and Kicking Horse routes and the fact that the Edmonton area is contributing so heavily to the provincial treasury in oil revenues.

The government's project of building a few miles of foliate highways to the Edmonton oil fields is excellent and should be implemented soon.

But this minor project does not begin to balance the rank discrimination in road-building between the southern and northern sections of the province.

Certainly it is time Alberta began publishing the details of its road-building program each year so northern taxpayers will know what they are getting for their money.

When Will Ottawa

The implacable failure of the federal government to provide adequate treatment for sex criminals has moved the women of Canada to drastic action.

All over the country, women's organizations are following the example of the Edmonton Local Council of Women and preparing to petition the federal government. Ottawa demanding the detention of all sex offenders under the care of psychiatrists until "competent medical authorities" certify that they are no longer dangerous to be at large in society."

It is expected that resolutions of this nature will eventually be signed by nearly two million Canadian women.

The essential soundness of this demand and the urgency of the need for it is as obvious as the reason for the government's failure to act is obscure.

Sex crime is on the increase in every Canadian centre.

Fines and imprisonment in the ordinary way do not check sex criminals nor remove them from the streets.

In other words, the treatment for sex-offenders prescribed by the Criminal Code of Canada is utterly and plainly ineffectual.

It is going to require the political, social and moral pressure of two million Canadian women to persuade the government to do what should have been done five years ago?

Support the Community Chest

The objective of $155,000 fixed by the Edmonton community chest, whose drive commences next week, is a commendable one in terms of the population of this city and the new wealth which has been created here.

It is a very great credit, not only to the chest officials but to the management of the 27 agencies concerned, that so much excellent work is performed in this community at such a comparatively low cost.

It is an old tale that the measure of any people's civilization is expressed in the manner in which they care for the aged, the infirm, the helpless and the sick. But it is nonetheless true.

And the financial burden contingent upon the discharge of these duties are burdens that no civilized person can evade or even wish to evade.

And everyone knows that the community chest method is the most efficient and least expensive way in which it can be done.

Generous support of the community chest is the privilege of every citizen who takes pride in his city and who realizes that helping others is the first mark of civilization and humanity.

The Community Chest call for funds in October is an opportunity for the citizens to lend a hand for it is the time for each person to be a good neighbor to the less fortunate members of the community.

The contribution enables the groups supported by the Chest to render personal service for the best of us. And because that service is organized and planned, it is the more effective and beneficial.

Let us all do our part to put over the Community Chest campaign in a short time. Give generously to the chest and its agencies may readily meet their responsibilities of service to humanity in our city.

R. S. PAULSEN, President Edmonton Main Street Association, St. Paul's Rectory.

The Holy Angels of God

Last Thursday was the feast, in the Christian calendar, of St. Michael and All Angels.

This occasion is worthy of special consideration because far too little stress is placed in these days on what prayer anciently called the Sanctus describes as "all the company of heaven."

There is an unfortunate tendency to leave out of the celestial picture the saints and angels who minister to the needs of those who make up the Church Triumphant which is in heaven as the Church Militant is on earth.

And this failure sometimes causes children and adults to see a thin and meagre picture of God's Kingdom without the richness and splendour of the angels which express His power and His glory.

Of the reality of the angels and arch-angels there can be no doubt.

Angels are mentioned no fewer than 126 times in the New Testament alone. And our Lord Himself speaks of the "holy angels" which will accompany Him on His return to earth and of the "twelve legions of angels" that His Father would have sent Him at the moment of His arrest in the garden had Christ so chosen.

A close study of the Bible indicates that there are at least seven orders of heavenly beings acting as messengers and servants of God: cherubim, seraphim, powers, dominions, principalities, arch-angels and angels.

It is known that there were at least four archangels, Michael, Raphael, Gabriel and Lucifer, the latter of which, known as the "Prince of Light" or "Son of the Morning," led a revolt in heaven and was cast down and became known as "Satan."

It is taught in some church doctrine and believed by many that the Archangel Michael, popularly conceived as chief of the angels, watches over the souls of the dying person to last assault to gain possession of it.

And the Christian life loses much of its color and beauty when the manifestation of God's love and care for mankind are left out of account as they frequently are today.

Dismal American Trend To Cass Consciousness

In the early spring of the year 1949 a group of semi-educated Americans set down in their pulp and, taking thought to the independent, went down these words:

"We hold it to be self-evident that all men are born free and equal."

These words were incorporated into the Declaration of Independence, ever since which the three states of the American people have claimed their separation from England and announced themselves as the United States.

The words of the Declaration of Independence have been the backbone of all American state documents.

It was the substance of American thought for three centuries that the American people were entitled to equal rights with the British people.

It was the theme of the American revolution that the American people were entitled to equal rights with the British people.

Somehow we came upon the sincerity of this position among modern Americans a few months ago when the Edmonton Bulletin published an article pointing out that a many social standing could be determined by what he drank.

It seems that one finds none in one of these classes that is not a member of the two factors.

In fact, the social standing of an American is fixed:

(a) By the type of house he lives in.

(b) By the location of his dwelling place in terms of fashion.

(c) By the nature of his occupation.

(d) By the nature of his income.

There is a great deal of detail in the "Principles of Life" but it is pointed out by Life, but it is difficult to go into it because there are too much of a temptation to go off somewhere and lose one's lunch.

Consent to Sue Crown Removal Urged by MP

OTTAWA, Oct. 1. — (CP) — A added reason why the whole pro- cedure should be eliminated. Mr. Gannon said, however, there are merits in the present method of clearing the way for such legal action.

USUALLY NEGLIGENCE In almost every case, legal action against the government arose from negligence by an employee of some government agency. When a request was made to the department for permission to sue the Crown, the justice department immediately investigated the whole affair.

Mr. Smith raised the matter during discussion of a Senate-sponsored bill to amend the Exchequer Court Act. The bill, which generally straightens out procedural matters affecting the court, was given second reading—adoption in principle.

Justice Minister Gannon inter- fered during Mr. Smith's remarks that consent for suit against the Crown is never withheld. That, replied Mr. Smith, is

CONSTABLE RON HOOPER . . . Ace police sharpshooter

Pistol Packin' Policemen Know How to Use Weapons

Edmonton is a quiet orderly city whose streets, as every- one knows, seldom echo to the sounds of gunfire.

But city constables are ready and able to handle their weapons if the occasion arises.

Every member of the force is required to take part in the annual shoot.

Younger members of the force take part in two additional shoots when they are given instruction by the force's experts, Accountant H. S. Bernice and Constable Ron Hooper.

In addition, every member of the force is encouraged to keep in his eye using special practice .22 pis- tols.

Ammunition for these 22's, con- siderably less expensive than regu- lar .38 ammunition, is supplied to the officers at wholesale prices.

NOT LIKE OLD DAYS Today's pistol packin' policeman is a far cry, some old timers admit privately, from the cop of yester- year.

In those days it was not unknown for a policeman to turn in his gun after long years of service with the same ammunition in it as the day he got it.

But things are different today. One of the incentives used to encourage young marksmen to the annual crossed pistols competition.

Any constable who scores 96 per cent or better in close range rapid firing at a "whirlwind target," and 90 per cent at a standard target, is entitled to wear silver crossed pistols.

The top shot each year wears gold pistols. This year's champions are Constables Ron Hooper and Sgt. Ed "Buck" Watson had a close call with death when another man shot him in the face. Wal-son was struck down as he entered a house to capture the gunman.

Constable Tommy Adams was shot twice in the body as he in- vestigated a break-in.

LESSON NOT FORGOTTEN Another close call was experi- enced by Inspector Murdo Munro and Constable Bob Sutherland a few years back.

They picked up two suspicious characters and were taking them to the police station.

In the power car the men simulta- neously pulled guns. The alert constables' hands shot out and grasped each gun before the ham- men could fall. Then he calmly disarmed the pair.

These incidents, which occurred about 20 years ago, drove home the hazards of the policeman's job. The lesson was not forgotten. There have been no repetitions since.

Today it is even more important for constables to be skilled pistol shots. More criminals than ever before are carrying weapons and, unfortunately, an increasing num- ber of these gunmen can be expected to drift to Edmonton.

It is comforting for the average citizen to know the man on the street is handy with a "shootin' arm."

U.S. Deficit At $1.4 Billion WASHINGTON, Oct. 1. (CP)— The United States Government spent about $1.4 billion more than it took in during the first three months of the 1950 fiscal year, and no relief from red ink financing appears in sight.

The most hopeful news from a government expert puts the budget deficit for the 12 months ending next June 30 at $2 billion.

Communications Bill Introduced in House

OTTAWA, Oct. 1.—(CP)—Transport Minister Chevrier moved in the commons yesterday a resolution to a bill providing for the nationalization of external telecommunications systems operating in Canada.

Mr. Chevrier said that a Commonwealth communications conference in 1945 unanimously recommended the public ownership of all external telecommunications systems. On Nov. 8, 1945, the government announced that it was ready to negotiate the external telecommunications systems in Canada.

He said that all Commonwealth countries except Pakistan and Ceylon now have a provision for external telecommunications systems. The bill before the Commons would not involve domestic communications.

The bill would incorporate the Canadian Overseas Telecommunications Corporation. That crown company would take over the assets and administration of existing Canadian interests carrying on external telecommunications services.

The legislation providing for an advance of $15,000,000 to the company. In addition, there will be provision for loans for capital expenditures.

OPERATES LIKE CNR
The company will operate much as the publicly-owned Canadian National Railways. Any surplus will be paid into the consolidated revenue fund and any deficit incurred by the company will be covered out of the fund.

Head of the new company has not yet been named.

By BILLY ROSE

At Least You Know Your Wife in N.Y.

They say it's pretty hard for a cut-of-towner to get to know his neighbors in New York and, generally speaking I guess it's true enough. But on the other hand...

When Sam Johnson of Pomona, Ohio, retired after a quarter century in the wholesale produce business he decided to spend the rest of his life in New York where, as he said, "I can eat out of the turkey sandwiches at midnight."

"I hear it's a hard place to make friends," said Johnson. "That's just that," said Sam. "I've heard the same old story over and over."

SILENCE ONLY RESULT
The following morning, the Johnsons were in residence in a sunny apartment on Central Park South, and were being looked after by a doorman, an elevator boy, a cook and a maid.

And a few weeks later they had decided in striking up a more-than-neighboring acquaintance with exactly four New Yorkers—the doorman, the elevator boy, the cook and the maid.

"Looks like the only way we'll ever meet anybody," said Sam one night. "It's to do what we do back home, go right out and ring the doorbells."

The next morning the bell belonged to a couple named Morrison. When Sam introduced himself, they invited him in for a drink, after which he never heard from them again. And the recognition of being equally cordial at other apartments and the ensuing silence just as silent.

The nearest thing to a rebuff was at the apartment of a Mr. Swamy on the sixth floor. As Sam was about to ring the bell, the door opened and a shortish girl in evening clothes walked out.

"My name's Johnson," Sam began, "and since we're neighbors I thought it might be a good idea."

"Pardon me," said the man, "but I'm late for the theatre."

CALL FROM DETECTIVE
A few weeks later, the building was thrown into something of a panic by a succession of neatly executed robberies.

It was obvious to the detective who investigated that the burglar was familiar with the habits of the tenants—he was always picked a time when the occupants were out, (b) he was a person whose presence in the building wouldn't attract attention, and (c) it might not be a bad idea to check up on the people who were well known to the building.

One evening the detective called the Johnsons and said: "I understand you've been ringing bells and getting yourself into a lot of apartments."

"I checked with the chief of police of Pomona and he threatened to march his whole force on New York if I even dared question you at home. That is, unless you were the crook, he made me promise to straighten you out with them. They're all meeting me in the superintendent's apartment at nine tonight and I'd like for you to be there."

When the Johnsons showed up, called in, introduced themselves around, and a tall, white-haired gentleman named Swamy was the last to arrive.

"I don't get it," said Sam to the detective. "I checked with the chief of police of Pomona and he threatened to march his whole force on New York if I even dared question you at home. That is, unless you were the crook, he made me promise to straighten you out with them. They're all meeting me in the superintendent's apartment at nine tonight and I'd like for you to be there."

THE "GRANTHAM"—This house is designed in the popular ranch style. The total front is 65' 8", including the garage. The living area is 1,283 square feet and the cubic contents are under 15,000 feet. An L-shaped living and dining room 18' 0" x 23' 0" gives an appearance of spaciousness. The kitchen and laundry are combined in a room 17' x 14' with an exceptionally efficient layout and ample storage. Roof lines are kept to a minimum pitch. Garage can be entered at side or from front as desired. A 100' frontage lot would be advisable. A feature of both bedrooms is a large wall with plenty of wardrobe space. Exterior is modern Colonial with a combination of stone and brick. This another in the Bulletin series of practical homes designed by Harold C. Beckett, M.R.A.I.C., 52 Chatham St. W., Windsor, Ontario.

Vern Turner scored the first touchdown of the game for Varsity on a fast endplay. Sid Bercoy kicking the scoring convert.

Varsity's defense was superb in the first half, holding the opposition to a field goal. In the second half, the Varsity offense came to life, scoring three touchdowns and two field goals.

FOURTH GAME MONDAY

Vancouver Takes Lead In Lacrosse Final

Vancouver, British Columbia, took the lead in the final game of the lacrosse season by defeating the Regina Capitals 10-4.

The game was played at the Victoria Stadium and was attended by a large crowd of spectators.

Three overtime goals by the Capitals clinched the game after the Tigers and Capitals fought a hard battle in the first two periods.

With less than three minutes to play, the Capitals scored a goal to tie the game. However, Vancouver scored again to win the game.

Bums, Sox in Driver's Seat

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(CP)—Flag chase in both major leagues this year proves one thing—nobody bases a prospective champion more than the guys who have to take recent titles.

If they can do it, they'll gladly tramp the champions in the dust. They proved yesterday when Philadelphia Athletics beat New York Yankees 4-1. A's had had a barrage of telegrams suggesting they were going to lay down, and young Earl Mack, son of old Connie, switched his pitching measures from Phil Marchenko to Dick Fowler.

All Fowler did was start an Athletics' triumph. St. Louis Cardinals pennant chances all but evaporated into this. Faced with the task of winning in order to tie the Brooklyn for first place in the National League, the flustered Jewettians turned a 6-0 setback at the hands of the lowly Chicago Cubs and fell a game behind the real contenders.

With only two games to go the Yankees now appear in a desperate situation. They must win their final two games from Boston Saturday and Sunday at Yankee Stadium to beat out the Sox. Alvin Karpis, winner of 11 and loser of six, will be manager. Casey Stengel's mind it will be Vic Raschi (36-10), who now is eager to start his season.

Manager Joe McCarthy is expected to name Ellis Kinder, his right-handed ace, with 13 straight victories and a 23-5 mark, for the season. At Kinder, relieved Fritz, McCarthy probably will switch to lefty Earl Barmore (26-7).

Mad at himself in the second when he loaded the bases with two-out on a single and two walks, Fowler talked Eddie Mack, who had the pitcher, into letting him out on the game.

Karpis, who had the score tied 1-1, it was the right move. Fowler's home run, into an in-fair-ending, was the right move. Fowler's home run, into an in-fair-ending, was the right move.

St. Kitt's Player Joining Flyers?

A former St. Catharines hockey player is rumored to be headed this way for a try-out with the Edmonton Flyers.

The player—Walter Evans—performed at a forward position with St. Kitt's in the Ontario Hockey Association last winter. He is a native of Brandon, Man.

And while Flyers' deftly at the St. Catharines, junior hockey players are attempting, without much success, to secure their releases from local athletic clubs.

These players reason that since hockey in Edmonton has been relegated to a junior B level, they would be better off playing in the United States.

TRANSFERS HARD TO GET. And the logical league for them to catch a berth in is the Western Canada Junior circuit.

Ferris Fahn aimed the killing blow—a three-run homer off Eddie Tipton in the third inning. That was the ball game. It was only the third home for Fahn all season.

Boston's Red Sox staggered within a single victory of the American League pennant in one of the wildest performances of the season.

On five hits the men of Joe McCarthy achieved an 11-0 triumph over the Washington Senators in a double play finally saved their lives in the last of the ninth. Ellis Kinder, a 25-game winner, was pitching his heart out with the potential winning run on first.

During the first hour of the strange struggle the Sox scored 10 runs—five in the second inning, five in the third. The Senators' best effort was a four-run outburst in the fourth.

As has been the case in recent days, the Cards "blew" this one too. A muffed fly ball to Sam Staal, which the charitable official scored ruled a double, sent the stage for Chicago's two runs in the second inning. As it turned out, that was the ball game.

KINER SMACKS 54th FOR NEW SWAT MARK

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 1.—Ralph Kiner set a National League home run record last night, hitting his 54th four-bagger of the month. His season's total is 64.

Old records for homers in one month was set by Cy Williams of Philadelphia in May, 1923. Last night's effort left the Pirate slugger two behind the N.L. mark set by Ted Williams in 1941.

That same Kiner holds the major league record with 60 runs in 1937. Kiner has two league titles.

Chief Jennings' remark was made last week prior to his departure for Windsor, to attend the Chief Constable's convention.

Criticism of the number of policemen on the city force take account of the fact that we have increased our police force from 100 to 150, improved our law-way radio facilities and also equipped all our motorcycles with radar.

"The general trend in modern cities is to do away with the foot-police policeman," Chief Jennings said.

$175 Million 'Wheat Deal' Not Likely To Be Halted

By George Ronald
WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—(CP)—The move of Senator Hugh Butler (Rep. Neb.) to halt Britain's use of Marshall Plan dollars for Canadian wheat may be swallowed up in the frantic drive for adjournment of Congress.

Butler, with the backing of six of his colleagues, has introduced a resolution expressing the "sense of the Senate" that Canadian wheat must not be bought with these funds.

But Nov. 1 is now the target for adjournment. Many questions considered more important than the wheat issue are likely to get Senate precedence.

"Even if it did come up for discussion, Butler's resolution might get a lukewarm reception. The arrangement permitting Britain to use $175 million of her Marshall Plan grant to buy Canadian wheat is an outcome of the recent Anglo-Canadian-American financial talks here. Congressional negotiations have pledged not to object. They are reported to feel that Britain's promise to buy other surplus American agricultural products balances the whole thing pretty well."

Butler's argument is that Marshall Plan dollars should not be used for Canadian wheat as long as the United States has more than it needs for its own use—and there now is a surplus in the United States.

looking time, in one of Edmonton's first fine houses purchased by D. J. O'Connell in 1928 as nearly childless parents. Among 120 children, almost every religious denomination is represented as no place in behalf of orphaned or neglected child goes unheeded by home officials.

Marshall Plan law is definite on that point. In effect, it looks the same as Butler's.

But it provides a loophole for "special circumstances." Britain's dollar crisis, say Marshall Plan officials and Agriculture Secretary Charles Brannan, is one of those circumstances.

Butler, announcing his "sense-of-the-Senate" resolution, noted that the United States government already has large sums invested in American wheat under the domestic price-support program.

"This wheat is already bought and paid for," he said, "and is available for shipment to Europe."

If Britain is permitted to spend our money to acquire wheat in Canada instead of in the United States, it will simply mean the American taxpayer is supporting the wheat market both here and in Canada. I think that is very unfair and was not the intent of Congress."

Dairy Industry Future Bright

Prices Support Program Said Of Norman Benefit

By Norman M. MacLeod
OTTAWA, Oct. 1.—(BUP)—Agriculture Minister James G. Gardiner saw brighter and wider horizons for Canada's dairy industry today, and said federal support policies are steering it toward a new era of stable prices.

Gardiner told British United Press he was confident the agricultural price support program would benefit both producers and consumers, without dipping into the federal treasury. He referred specifically to current government butter and cheese support prices.

The minister predicted a bigger cheese market, at home and abroad, that he expected would mean more money to be made by 10,000,000 pounds of cheese this year, to keep the price at 20 cents a pound.

The department didn't fear loss on the transaction. "Cheese in stock is a rising and increasing in value steadily, up to a period of two years or more. This will give the government its cost and storage charges," Gardiner said.

He forecast a steady increase in Canadian cheese production over the next few years, because of the excellent war-created market for canned and powdered milk.

MORE CHEESE
Farmers who found the processed milk market closed, would turn to cheese production, Gardiner said. The minister expected prices of butter to become more stable during the next year. Both consumers and producers would get a break, splitting fifty-fifty on the deal, he said.

Building Costs Too High, Says Ship Line
SCOTIAMOUNT, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The Royal Mail Line, one of the major shipping companies linking Britain and South America, will build no more ships while shipbuilding costs stay up to present highs, C. C. Barber, managing director of the company, said last night.

LANDLORD CHARGED IN TENANT'S DEATH

SHIOCTON, Wis., Oct. 1.—(UP)—A landlord faced a first degree murder charge today for killing a tenant in an argument over a lease.

Jack Lauterman, 52, captured an hour after attempting to make his getaway, admitted that he knocked Mrs. Esther Clubb, 47, to the floor yesterday and then killed her with a shotgun blast.

Neighbors said Lauterman had been arguing with the Clubb family over their lease on his farm for some time and that he "had threatened to kill them all."

PGE Extension Seen Big Defence Factor

VANCOUVER, Oct. 1.—(CP)—Defence-minded military authorities here welcomed news of a possible extension of the government-owned Pacific Great Eastern Railway to connect with the Alaska railway system.

It would be the means of strengthening the defence link between Canadian and American forces in the north.

President Truman Johnson has been invited to Washington to discuss the proposal with United States authorities. The invitation comes from U.S. senator Warren G. Magnuson of Seattle.

A rail link with Alaska would be of great benefit to U.S. forces who at present must bring supplies in by Alaska Highway or by sea and land.

"That would provide quite a military advantage to the Americans," said one high placed military officer here who did not wish to be named.

WINOOSKI, Vt., Oct. 1.—(UPI)—A doctor's prescription helped a Vermont man get a break in the hardware business.

The first week he made sales at night after working days at the sawmill and working at the sawmill nights.

By the second week, he was making better and working at the sawmill nights.

Such he quit the mill altogether to devote full time to the business which expanded to the point where he now needs three employees.

CAMROSE, Oct. 1.—Bethany Sunset Home at Camrose had a "Home Day" on Wednesday at the newly erected haven for the aged. The building was crowded to capacity with visitors from far and near.

Opening devotion was given by Rev. J. B. Staley of Birch Hills, Sask., and welcome greetings by Sister Marie Weiss, Rev. T. W. Maalsted of Edmonton, was the guest speaker and he congratulated the home for the fine building and the splendid work that is being done.

Other speakers were Rev. J. T. Doherty, Port Arthur, Ontario, and Pastor K. Bernagel of Winnipeg. Numerous telegrams were read and greetings received from well wishers. Fifteen bibles were donated by the Ladies Bible Society. Baskets of flowers were sent by T. R. Camp, of Edmonton and the Edmonton Bulletin. Many other gifts of money and well wishes were received and forwarded by donors to the cause.

New Livestock Inspector Named

DRUMHELLER, Oct. 1.—Official inspectors from the Dominion Department of Agriculture to the G. S. People should facilitate the export of livestock from this district to points in the United States. Previously export stock had to be examined by a veterinarian sent in from Calgary or Edmonton.

G. S. People, who opened an office here some months ago, has studied in both Canada and England. He had extensive training in research.

Vermilion Launches Bang's Disease Fight

VERMILION, Oct. 1.—Both Service Boards in the area have set up program for the vaccination of heifer calves in the fight to check the spread of Bang's disease.

It is estimated that fully half the herds in the district are infected with Bang's disease, otherwise known as contagious abortion of cattle.

In the Municipality, Chairman Charles Stewart of the Agricultural Service Board announced that he would employ a veterinarian to advise on the disease and to employ a veterinarian to advise on the disease and to employ a veterinarian to advise on the disease.

In Vermilion River Municipality, George Lawrence, Agricultural Service Board Chairman, has sent a circular letter to all ratepayers advising that Dr. Alexander, veterinary surgeon of Lloydminster, is undertaking a vaccination of all heifer calves. Routes in Vermilion River will also be lined up in order that the program will be carried out.

TO GET UP FREE AREA
It is proposed to set up a Bang's free area in Vermilion River Municipality. Petitions have been circulated this summer and the majority of ratepayers signed them. Mr. Lawrence advised that it may take some time to inaugurate this program, but it is hoped that eventually the Bang's disease will be stamped out.

Service Boards and the councilors of both these municipalities are concerned about the number of cases of Bang's disease in the districts. This disease has been traced to people detaching milk from infected cows. The vaccination program is being undertaken by District Agriculturalist R. H. Buckingham and field supervisor Peter Peacock and Chester Gamble of Vermilion River M.D. and Minburn M.D.'s respectively.

Rotary Award Winner Speaks At Drumheller

DRUMHELLER, Oct. 1.—Dale Thompson, who had just completed a year of study at the University of Paris under a Paul Harris Rotary Scholarship, told members of the Drumheller Rotary Club that the future peace of the world depends on each of us thoroughly understanding our government, its problems and structure.

Thompson, who was introduced by his former teacher Jack Taylor, spoke with the Rotary during World War II. He is winner of a D.P.C.

The German people, Thompson said, required to work to happy, well presented student another problem to the future of the country. The British were doing a "marvelous job" in their sector, Thompson said.

Country Buying Habits Different

BARRHEAD, Oct. 1.—There are many differences between city and country people, and one of them is the way they buy meat, says Charles Yuill, Barrhead's mayor who knows both sides of the business as farmer and butcher.

Individual sales are smaller in the city shops than in the country, said Mr. Yuill. In the city a customer buys a pound of sausage, in the country he buys five pounds.

QUALITY SAME
But there is no difference in the quality, he said, and he could base this on personal experience because he was the butcher business in Edmonton until 1930 when he went to Barrhead to farm.

Country Buying Habits Different
BARRHEAD, Oct. 1.—There are many differences between city and country people, and one of them is the way they buy meat, says Charles Yuill, Barrhead's mayor who knows both sides of the business as farmer and butcher.

Individual sales are smaller in the city shops than in the country, said Mr. Yuill. In the city a customer buys a pound of sausage, in the country he buys five pounds.

QUALITY SAME
But there is no difference in the quality, he said, and he could base this on personal experience because he was the butcher business in Edmonton until 1930 when he went to Barrhead to farm.

He came from Ontario with his family in 1907.

Mr. Yuill still has his farm, but in 1942 he went into Barrhead and bought a business because he missed the people he met over the country.

"The business goes like a dream," he said, "I think it is the personal contact. I have been in the meat business for 30 years."

BUSY CITIZEN
Mr. Yuill was elected councillor in 1944. He has been in the village; it became a town in January, 1947, and Mr. Yuill stepped in as first mayor. He is also trustee of the local and divisional schools.

He said, "There is a splendid mixed farming, we have lumber coming in and they are looking for oil."

Red Deer Tops High School Rugby League

RED DEER, Oct. 1.—Red Deer now tops the High School Rugby League, with two wins and one loss, followed by Ponoka and Wetaskiwin, who were a loss apiece. Lacombe trails in third spot, with two losses against a single win.

Ponoka pulled a surprise upset, when they played Red Deer, until well into the final quarter, to win the game, 8 to 5. On Wednesday, Red Deer moved to the front of the league, with a 10 to 5 victory over Lacombe, in a closely played contest, that saw the Red Deer victors, come from behind to tie the game in the third quarter.

A Lacombe fumble gave Gauthier his scoring opportunity. The home team had put the game on ice for Red Deer, and the league leader in the last for his lead by recovering another Lacombe fumble, to score an additional five points.

Mr. and Mrs. Denison will move to the new residence in the near future.
